Dances of Universal Peace are simple circle dances that are inspired by the ageless wisdom of the spiritual and religious traditions of humankind. They combine song, movement and concentration to open our heart and invoke a sense of peace, harmony and healing. Come and nourish your soul as you join these gentle joyful dances.

All welcome - all ages, abilities, experiences and personal beliefs are accepted and included. No need to book, just turn up.

WHERE: The Gaya Tree, 654 Tara Rd COST: Koha according to your means
